

CELEBRATING ON THE DOCK OF THE BAY

For those dreaming of a breathtaking waterfront view as they celebrate their wedding with a roomful of family and friends, East Bay Restaurant on the shores of Lake Holcombe is a sure fit.

East Bay is a spacious log-cabin style restaurant and bar located on Lake Holcombe in northern Chippewa County. Located just 45 miles northeast from Eau Claire, its distance from larger cities gives it a secluded appeal. The restaurant is situated in a prime location on Lake Holcombe, a 4,000-acre flowage with 120 miles of shoreline. Holcombe is fed by five rivers and has a natural appeal with many miles of undeveloped shorelines.

The modern log building features a fine dining restaurant, full service bar, banquet room and outdoor patio. There are beautiful lake views from nearly every seat in the house. The large facility allows for simultaneous events to take place in the restaurant, banquet room and outdoor patio.

In the summertime, the outdoor patio and deck is the perfect place to have a drink while watching area boaters or the colorful sun set along the wooded skyline. The patio becomes an extension of the restaurant during warmer months. Each Saturday throughout the summer, tourists and locals alike come for the Tiki Bar and live music played on the lakefront grass.

The full-service restaurant onsite features a casual dining atmosphere with a large menu, including prime rib, hand cut steaks, seafood, salads, nightly specials and more. The full-service bar has an “up north” atmosphere with a cozy fireplace, a log interior and a wrap-around bar.

“East Bay is a beautiful facility, yet is very economical. We work within customer's budgets to provide an elegant event at a price they can afford.”

*— Rick Mitchell, East Bay,
General Manager and Executive Chef*

General Manager and Executive Chef Rick Mitchell has nearly 40 years of experience in the kitchen. He has culinary experience at several restaurants, including owning and operating his own restaurant for 21 years.

Mitchell also is the head chef for several large music festivals in the area. Mitchell draws from his vast culinary experience to prepare unique and customized menus for his customers.

“We are able to tailor the menu to accommodate different tastes and party themes,” says Mitchell. “We strive to be versatile and creative when preparing for events both large and small.”

The restaurant provides all meals for parties in the banquet room. Offsite catering is also available.

The attached, yet separate, banquet room is available for weddings, meetings, reunions and other special occasions and will seat up to 200 people comfortably. It has its own entrance, bar and restrooms with ample parking available for all guests. During the summer months, additional space is available on the outdoor deck, which can sit up to 80 additional guests.

Banquet Coordinator Rachel Braden is the director of all in-house events. She assists in coordinating the menu, layout and other details with couple. She is also available for event planning, including making suggestions for area vendors and assisting with any planning, such as decorating.

“Because our banquet room is separate from the restaurant, the space can be decorated well in advance,” says Braden. “If the couple needs any assistance, I’m more than willing to help. It’s my job to ensure that all details are in place before guests arrive.”

The wedding ceremony can take place on the front lawn overlooking the lake. There are no fees to have your ceremony on the property when you have the reception at East Bay.

Several resorts and hotels are available in the Holcombe area for wedding guests. Most are situated on Lake Holcombe and offer a variety of recreational activities, including: beach volleyball, biking, hiking, golfing, swimming, fishing, boating, snowmobiling and golfing at one of two local golf courses, to name a few. Pontoon and fishing boat rentals are also available locally.

“East Bay is a beautiful facility, yet is very economical. We work within customer’s budgets to provide an elegant event at a price they can afford,” says Mitchell.

Overall, East Bay is everything most couples are looking for in a reception venue: a beautiful facility with stunning views and excellent food at a great value.
